

INVISIBLE COLOR BOOK

For Boys & Girls

July 2, 1922

THE FOURTH

HURRAH! for the Fourth of July. My! look at all the pretty things shooting high in the sky. What wonderful colors in all of them. "O-O! daddy, hold tight and don't let our big balloon get away before we are ready to let 'er go." Look at the first one; see how high it is going. S-w-i-s-h! S-w-i-s-h! and BANG! BANG! go the rockets. Up-up they go, and how gracefully they turn to spread their beautiful designs to make your eyes dance. O-O! and the big searchlights flaring back and forth. "Hurry, daddy, and help with another balloon before the lights go out. Whee! LET 'ER GO!" Use a brush and plain water and paint carefully between the lines to see all the colors appear.

EDITOR'S NOTE—Look through the book and read the little stories before painting the pictures or making the cut-out. Rinse the brush often while painting to prevent the colors running together.

Copyright, 1922, World Color Printing Co., St. Louis, Mo.